CLERK, U.S. DISTRICT COURT
CENTRAL DISTRICT OF CALIFORNIA

v.

EDCU 10-0239-AHM-DTB

United States of America, Defendant

Motion for A Privilege Log

Mr. Capozzi, Plaintiff, has heard responses from the Defendant, United States, in which it objected to possible present or future discovery obligations / requests etc. based upon various "privilege" - exceptions it may perceive as being applicable.

At this time, Plaintiff hereby requests that a "Privilege Log" be implemented by the Court in which all such exceptions must be recorded in said log, with the basis for each such exception being stated for each invocation.

as it applies to the materials therin, with the documents being stamped and placed into the log and all parts/sections corresponding to the invocation cited for the Court's reference.

Mr. Capozzi respectfully requests that an index of all recorded entries be provided to all parties, and the Court, at each entry noted as well.

The Court is also requested to screen all such entries for appropriateness and to preserve the full content for possible appeals which may arise.

This Log should apply to all parties to this matter invoking any and all privilege EXCEPTION(S).

Respectfully Submitted,

Derek A. Capozzi, pro se
